- Application fee: The one-time application fee is paid with new applications for enrolment.
- Enrolment fee: The one-time enrolment fee must be paid in full by the first tuition fee payment date. It is non-refundable and non-transferable.
- Tuition fees: Payable annually, tuition fees include textbooks, library books, instruction, class handouts, online educational materials, arts and crafts supplies, insurance and field trips within Phnom Penh.
- Capital fees: Payable annually, capital fees cover the maintenance and upgrading of school facilities. Students enrolling for the second semester will be charged 50% of the annual capital fee. Students who withdraw before the beginning of the second semester may receive a 50% refund of the annual capital fee. A withdrawal form must be received by the last day of Semester 1. No quarterly refunds or discounts will be offered.

ADDITIONAL COMPULSORY COSTS

- English as an Additional Language (EAL) support: EAL support fees are charged when students are identified as requiring additional English language support. The support and programs differ among grades. This is an annual fee of $600. The fee will be prorated to $300 for a single semester as needed.
- Specialized assessment: In the case that a student requires a specialized assessment, a fee of $75 per test is charged.
- Uniforms: Students in JK-Grade 12 are required to wear the CIS uniform. Orders and payments are made to the Payment Services Team.
- Book deposit: A deposit of $150 is required for all students in JK-Grade 5. A deposit of $300 is required for students in Grade 6-12. This covers library books and classroom textbooks. The value of library books unreturned for more than 2 months will be deducted from the deposit. Deposits must be topped up if any deductions are made. When students transition from Grade 5 to Grade 6, an additional $150 deposit will be due.

OPTIONAL FEES

- Extracurricular Activities (ECAs): ECAs are optional after-school classes that enable students to explore their hobbies and interests. Fees vary based on the activities offered. Information regarding ECA sessions, fees and activities is shared with parents in advance of ECA sessions.
- Transportation: CIS provides a school bus service in central Phnom Penh and a school buggy service on and around Koh Pich. Parents will be invoiced once they have registered.
- Lunch: A school lunch service is available to all students. Fees are paid to the Payment Services Team.
- Boarding: Boarding options are available. Please contact the Payment Services Team for more information.

- Co-curricular Activities (CCAs): Students can join optional CCAs throughout the year. There may be fees associated with tournaments, events and team uniforms.
- Service Learning: Students in Grades 6-12 engage in experiences throughout the year (including a 5-day intensive service activity program for Grades 6-11) designed for individuals to learn more about themselves along with their local community. These experiences reflect the required curriculum of CAS (Creativity, Activity & Service), a fundamental component of the IBDP.

TUITION DISCOUNTS

- Early Bird Discount: Tuition fees paid on or before April 28, 2023 will receive a 3% discount. The Early Bird Discount only applies to Plan A.
- Sibling Discount
 - Second siblings enrolled in 2022-2023 will continue to receive the sibling discount of 10% in 2023-2024.
 - Second siblings who enroll in 2023-2024 who have a first sibling enrolled in 2022-2023 will receive the sibling discount of 10% in 2023-2024.
 - Second siblings who enroll in 2023-2024 whose first sibling enrolls in 2023-2024 will receive the sibling discount of 5% in 2023-2024.
 - If first and second siblings do not enroll in 2022-2023 because of a waiting list, the second sibling will receive the sibling discount of 10% in 2023-2024.

BILLING AND PAYMENT

- Due dates: Payments must be made on or before the due dates listed above to prevent any late fees. All fees and outstanding balances must be settled before report cards or academic records can be issued.
- Late charges: A 5% late charge will be applied to outstanding payments after the deadline. An additional 1% will be charged each additional week the payment is late.
- Late payment: If outstanding fees have not been resolved 2 weeks after the late fee payment notice has been issued, the parents will be required to discuss continued enrolment at the school.

OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

New students

- New students are required to pay all fees within the first 2 weeks of acceptance to CIS in order to secure their class placement.
- New students can begin classes 2 school days after payment has been made.
- Additional charges may be required for certain educational travel and activities on a cost-recovery basis.
- The application and enrolment fees will not be charged for returning students if these students have returned before four full semesters have passed since their withdrawal. Following four full semesters, all applications are subject to application and enrolment fees.
- Newly enrolled students will receive one free backpack.

Tuition adjustments for late enrolments

- After November 13, 2023: 50% discount from the first semester's tuition or pay 75% of full year's tuition.
- At the beginning of the second semester: 50% discount from the full year's tuition or pay 50% of full year's tuition.
- After April 26, 2024: pay 25% of full year's tuition.

Deposits for returning students

- All students returning to CIS for the 2023-2024 school year will be required to pay a placeholder deposit of $750 on or before April 28, 2023.
- This deposit is non-refundable and non-transferable. It will be applied to the family's school account. This deposit can only be applied to the following school year and may not be deferred.

Refunds

- A 90% refund of tuition fees will be offered if a Withdrawal Form is received by the first day of the school year and if all fees have been paid in advance.
- A 40% refund of tuition fees for the first semester and a full refund of tuition fees for the second semester will be offered if a student withdraws by September 30, 2023.
- A full refund of any second semester tuition fees paid will be refunded if a student withdraws before January 31, 2023.
- A 40% refund of second semester tuition fees paid will be offered if a student withdraws before March 14, 2024.
- No other partial refunds on tuition fees will be granted.
- There are no refunds on quarterly tuition fees.
- All refunds with the exception of refunds for tuition fees are subject to a 10% transaction fee.

Force Majeure

- In the event of force majeure or an extended school closure due to circumstances that the school could not predict or control, CIS will make every effort for continuity of operations. However, tuition and fees are non-refundable in this case.
- Circumstances include and are not limited to Acts of God, fire, flood, storms, war, civil unrest, military or police action, rebellion, banditry, riots, explosions, epidemic/pandemic, and any other event or circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the school.
- Circumstances also include COVID-19. The school makes a concerted effort to minimize the risk of transmission of infection. However, CIS cannot guarantee that there will be no COVID-19 infection in the school community. Tuition and fees will not be refunded in relation to COVID-19.

Family referrals

- Families who refer other families to CIS receive a $200 credit upon the child's successful enrolment to CIS. Credits will be applied to their school account.
- Families may make multiple referrals. Credit will be given for each successful family referral.

Return of educational resources

- If a student does not return a musical instrument or electronic device, the value of the item will be deducted from their school account.
